

Granite 5® Beta

Granite 5® Beta from Polyco is a high quality leather glove with a seamless knitted Kevlar® liner, providing ultimate mechanical protection. Made from a superior grain leather, it has a reinforced thumb crotch, a protective vein patch and additional leather protection to the back of the wrist. The leather is reinforced with a seamless Kevlar® liner which provides maximum cut and puncture resistance. The Kevlar® yarn is made with a soft finish to prevent irritation allowing the glove to worn for long periods without discomfort, and for extra strength and protection, double-stitched Kevlar® thread is used throughout. The elasticated wrist, which has protective leather patches to the front and back, provides a secure fit and prevents dust and debris from entering.
