

Rigmaster Cotton Chrome Glove™ LC176

Rigmaster Cotton Chrome Glove™ LC176 is a chrome leather rigger style glove with a knitted wrist. Made from durable chrome leather, it offers an excellent level of protection, achieving maximum EN388 scores for abrasion, tear and puncture resistance, no small feat for a traditional rigger. The knitted wrist keeps the hands free from dust and dirt. The LC176 is extremely durable and is an ideal choice for light general handling tasks. It also offers exceptional value for money.

Typically used for:

- Materials Handling
- Timber & Wood Panel Handling
